"BOMB" SENT TO GOV. J. K. TENER PROBED

Postoffice Inspector Takes Apart Queer Contrivance

READY TO SHOOT OFF

Device Came Through the Mails and Bears Philadelphia Postmark

Ingeniously contrived and evidently a device not to be tampered with too much, a "bomb" sent to Governor J. K. Tener some time ago was opened this morning at the postoffice by Postoffice Inspector H. H. Williams. Whether the instrument was sent to Mr. Tener as a joke or whether it was meant as an explosive to do him injury, is a question yet to be determined. Nevertheless Inspector Williams states an investigation will be made.

When the device came to Mr. Tener from Philadelphia he didn't admire the looks of it, but turned it over to Postmaster McCardle. Postmaster McCardle and his force of employes were curious, but they felt a little nervous about getting the contrivance out of temper, as it might go off and do somebody some damage.

Inspector Williams came a couple of days ago and this morning the strong box was opened and the device taken out. Handling it gingerly, he saturated it with water and with a penknife as his only implement started in to dissect the thing. It was a pasteboard cylinder made in pencil shape, about eight or nine inches long and had on one end a small button picture of Col. Roosevelt. The device was labelled with a printed slip of paper "Memorial to State's Heroes Dedicated," and on a smaller piece of paper in smaller type contained a demand: "Drive the Republican bosses out." Inside was found a substance resembling powder, but giving forth a smell like licorice. In the middle of it was found a match and so arranged in one end was a piece of bent steel that when removed it would light the match. Running the greater part of the length of the instrument was a piece of punk, to serve as a fuse. A small piece of lead, evidentally taken from a toy tin horn and having a small sharp piece of brass attached occupied a place in the end.

From the address and postmark, it was determined that the contrivance had come from Philadelphia. A chemist will probably be asked to determine the nature of the powder-like substance. Inspector Williams refused when it was suggested, to strike a match to even a little of it.

To Discuss Evangelist

Ministers and Laymen to Hold Meeting to Talk Over Project

The matter of holding an evangelistic campaign next spring, to end at about the time of the Sunday School convention to be held here in June, will be taken up by a committee of ministers and laymen from each church at a meeting to be held at the First Presbyterian church Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Each of the ministers and six laymen from each church are expected to be present. The proposition of extending to Rev. A. E. Burows an invitation to conduct the campaign will be discussed.

CAMPAIGN IS GREAT SUCCESS

Evangelistic Service At M. E. Church Brings 130 Conversions

CLASS TO JOIN CHURCH

One of the greatest evangelistic campaigns which has ever been held in this vicinity, which may close on Sunday night has been held during the past three weeks at the Methodist Episcopal church. The campaign was of such a nature that all told to date there have been 130 conversions. Evangelist A. E. Burrows of Ohio, was in charge of the services for ten days and then when he left Rev. F. A. Richards, the pastor assumed his place.

While conducted at the Methodist Episcapol church the meetings were really interdonimational and various churches received the benefit.

There were over 100 conversions during the time Rev. Burows and his song leader, Prof R. A. Jennings were here and this week there were 25 conversions.

Sunday morning there will be an impressive sight at the Methodist Episcopal church when a class of at least 50 will be admitted to church membership. Sunday evening Rev. Richards will conduct an evangelistic service and will then announce whether or not the meetings will be continued.

CANDIDATES FILE ACCOUNTS OF MONEY SPENT AT ELECTION

Heavy Contributions Made to the Republican County Committee--Traveling and Advertising Takes Some

Candiates are filing their campaign expenses at Washington in compliance with the requirements of the Roberts Corrupt Practices law. Dr. A. V. Lewis, of Donora, the successful Republican candidate for the office of prothonotary, expended $815.99 in the recent election. Of this amount $756 was given to Treasurer James P. Eagleson of the Republican county committee He expended $386.17 in the primary election or a total of $1,202.16.

John A. Berry, one of the successful candidates for county commissioner, a Republican, filed his account this week. He expended $344 in the recent election of which $310 was contributed to the Republican county committee, having been paid to James P. Eagleson. Mr. Berry spent $255.16 in the primary campaign.

Thomas Hill, re-elected county commissioner expended $347 in securing his election. He gave $200 to the Republican county committee on October 16 and on November 3 he gave $100 more. The balance was spent in advertising. Mr. Hill spent 192.25 for his nomination.

Richard G. Miller, the successful Republican candidate for district attorney, filed his expense account this week. He expended $782.49 of which he paid $744.16 to Treasurer James P. Eagleson of the Republican county committee. He expended $750 in the primary campaign.

W. S. Lockhart, the successful Republican candidate for clerk of courts filed his expense account this week. He expended a total of $779.50 of which $750 was contributed to Treasurer James P. Eagleson of the Republican county committee. Mr. Lockhart expended $311.42 in the primary campaign.

James T. Heffran, coroner-elect, spent $169 in securing his election. He gave $156 to the Republican county committee. The balance was spent for railroad and street car fare. Mr. Heffran spent $200.88 in securing his nomination.

B. C. Stout, defeated for election for poor director, spent $147.25 in endeavoring to secure his election. He paid Chairman Brownlee $75 and the balance was spent in advertising and traveling expenses. Mr. Stout spent in the primaries $70.40.

R. W. Wolfe, director of the poor-elect, spent $121. Of the amount $100 was given the Republican county committee. He spent $190.85 in the primaries.

RAILS LAID ON TROLLEY LINE OUT TO DONORA

Expected Service Will be Instituted by First of New Year

All the rails of the trolley extension between Monongahela and Donora have been laid and the workmen are busy stretching the trolley wire. The rail connections were made above Baird station Thursday and the finishing of the work will now be pushed with great rapidity. From present indications the trolley should be able to run on a regular schedule by the first of the year. The work car is already hauling ballast and placing it and after the trolley wire is made permanent in its place, there will be but little more to do to complete the line.

CRIMINAL COURT ENDS; SLATE IS AGAIN CLEARED

The November term of criminal court ended Friday. This closes up District Attorney C. L. V. Acheson's term which office he has filled during the past four years. Very few cases were carried over, and District Attorney-elect R G. Miller will have a comparatively clean slate when he assumes office in January.

William Johnson of Bulger pleaded guilty Friday to felonious entry. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $25 and costs and serve 60 days in jail. Frank Campbell, charged with assault upon his 12-year-old son, was found not guilty and the costs were put upon Jerry Sommons, the private prosecutor.

Louis Loupatkih of Braznell, who was tried on a charge of collecting fire insurance on false pretense, was found not guilty. The private prosecutor was the German Fire Insurance company of Wheeling which was stuck for the costs.

Importuned by ministers in the union Thanksgiving service to be held at Christ Lutheran church next Thursday evening to have charge of the musical program, Prof I. T. Daniel has announced a rehearsal to take place in the First Presbyterian church after the Sunday evening service tomorrow. The time set for the rehearsal is 8:30 o'clock. He has picked a choir from the singers of the various churches.

INCREASE SHOWN IN BUSINESS

Charleroi Savings and Trust Co. Makes Statement

LATEST TO LOCATE HERE

The Charleroi Savings and Trust company, which is the "infant industry" in the banking line in Charleroi, makes a most excellent showing in its statement recently published in response to the call of the State Banking commissioner. This call was made for a statement of affairs at the close of business on November. 6.

With a capital ctock of $125,000, the company has resources of 630,-260.63 It has a surplus of $20,000, with undivided profits, less expenses and taxes paid, of $19,371.98. Its deposits are $465,888.65 and it has trust funds invested and uninvested to the amount of $233,964.73.

This statement shows a gain of $80,000 in deposits and a gain of $200,000 in trust accounts since its last statement. The Charleroi Savings and Trust company is one of the solid institutions of the valley, and its good business showing reflects the confidence the public has in its character and standing.

Trust funds are special deposits made to settle estates to support minors, and to execute the office of trustees or guardians in transacting business for others. The company is making a big gain in this department right along.

Operations at Allenport to be Suspended Shortly

OPENING IN FIFTH POOL

Workings in Upper River to be in Shape for Heavy Shipments by Spring

Practically worked out, the Vesta coal mine of the Jones & Laughlin company near Allenport will be closed down entirely within a short time. There are still about 40 men employed about the premises, 20 on the day shift and 20 on the night. These men are engaged principally in drawing ribs and stumps and the output will be used principally to coal steamers of the Vesta line. Ten years ago the Vesta mine employed nearly 1,000 men who did the bulk of their buying in Charleroi.

Marking the beginning of the end the power plant was shut off this week. It will not be long now until the mine is not operating. At the present time four steamers of this line are engaged in towing coal from the fourth pool to the mills at Pittsburg and Aliquippa. These are, the Henry A. Laughlin, the B. F. Jones, the Titan and the Vulcan. Only the Vesta No. 4 mine at California is working steadily now and as it is one of the largest in the country, the Vesta coal trade is being kept up well

In the Fifth pool the Vest coal operations are not far enough advanced to take out any quantity, but the mine there will be in shape next spring to produce large quantities of coal. Jones and Laughlin constitute with the River Coal company the biggest river shippers in the Monongahela valley.

JONES-IRWIN NUPTIALS SAID AT HOMESTEAD

At the parsonage of the First Presbyterian church of Homestead this morning the marriage of Miss Mina G. Irwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Irwin, of near Monongahela and Walter F. Jones, formerly of Charleroi took place. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate members and friends of the families by Rev Hickman, the pastor of the church. After the ceremony the happy couple left for a short wedding journey to Washington D. C. and other points of interest. Both are well known young people. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones of Charleroi, and is employed near Monongahela as a well driller.

ADVERTISE EARLY.

In this age of time-saving and efficiency, a united movement is on foot to induce people to do their Christmas and holiday shopping early. This should appeal directly to the merchant and retailer, as early shopping insures more business, more deliberate buying, more extensive buying and consequently much more business. With the bulk of the Christmas buying done beforehand and the larger and more expensive purchases made and disposed of more time and attention can be paid to the last rush, when every facility of the merchant is needed to dispose of the special Christmas goods which afford small profits and which entails a loss if carried over Therefore early Christmas shopping means more business and more profits for the merchant.

This is perfectly clear and logical; but, to induce people to shop early the merchant must advertise early. How can people become imbued with the Christmas spirit—that which induces them to dip down into their pockets and spend their money—if there is nothing to stimulate this spirit? Most merchants make the mistake of waiting until two weeks before Christmas before making their holiday announcements which only enables them to catch the rush trade instead of getting the trade of the deliberate and more extensive buyers. Mail order houses and Pittsburg, Philadelphia and New York dealers are already flooding this community with catalogues and prospectuses of Christmas goods, and are getting the cream of much of the trade of this community which rightfully belongs to the home merchant.

City merchants are preparing to inaugurate an early shopping movement. They are doing this by advertising early and creating Christmas wants three or four weeks in advance of the ordinary period. Of course there will be the customary rush the last few days, but the merchant who has put in his licks early can watch the trade that he cannot serve in the final rush pass him by with complancency. The merchant who advertises early will catch the most desirable of the early shoppers.

HOW MINING DECLINES

The rapidity with which coal deposits are exhausted when mining operations are prosecuted on a large scale, is evidenced by the statement that the Jones & Laughlin people are about to finally abandon their mine at Vesta. This mine is now employing a total force of forty men who are engaged in pulling stumps and pillars, which marks the last of the mining operations of the plant.

Ten years ago the Vesta mine was the largest producing plant along the river. At one time nearly one thousand people were employed there, and as street railway and other transportation facilities were not so extensive then as now, Charleroi got the bulk of the trade from the operatives of this mine. The graduai decline of operations of course had its effect on Charleroi. The working out of this mine, together with other causes has caused a marked decline in outside business which many people attribute to the fault of the business people of the town in not holding trade which is alleged to have gone elsewhere. This is but natural consequence and one which will have to be considered in every mining community. Coal seams are not inexhaustible, and at the rate at which mining operations are now conducted a decade means big changes. Coal mining cannot be a permanent operation in any one locality and business interests must look to manufacturing for permanent industry in connection with the production of coal.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

A story is told of a prominent Pittsburg mercantile firm that one time called its millinery buyer to account for purchasing two Paris hats which were marked to sell for $150 each. The head of the firm was particularly indignant, and said to the buyer, who was a woman:

"What in the would did you ever buy these hats for? You'll never sell them at that price. The idea of paying $150 for a woman's hat is perfectly ridiculous.

"Oh yes, I'll sell them," replied the buyer. "I had two women in particular in mind when I bought them. I know I'll sell them."

"You never will," insisted the head of the firm. "I believe all our patrons are too sensible to ever pay that much for a hat."

A few days later the senior happened to be in the millinery department and the buyer informed him that she had disposed of the two Paris creations.

"Who in the world was foolish enough to pay that much for a hat?" he asked.

"One was Mrs. ———, and the other was Mrs. ———," replied the buyer, mentioning the wife of the head partner, and the wife of another member of the firm.

The head of the firm grinned rather foolishly, but made no further remarks.

"There's a small boy in Charleroi who's got the making of a shrewd business man," remarked a Charleroi citizen a day or two ago. "Some time ago I noticed the announcement of an article to appear in the next number of the Saturday Evening Post which I wanted to read. The day the Post appeared I hailed a small boy who was selling the periodical on the street, and bought a copy. I had not been getting the Post regularly, but the next week the self-same small boy appeared at my office and tendering me a copy of the publication said in a matter of fact way:

"'Here's your Post for this week, Mr.——'

"The tact of the little fellow in adding a new patron to his route struck me as out of the ordinary for a boy of his years and although I had not ordered the Post, I took it without question and have been buying it regularly ever since."

Beggar and king, who fought the valiant fight,
They shall transfigure even my poor cell.

And when the shadows of the night begin
And sifted sunbeams fall no more on me,
May I have learned to light my lamp within,
So that the passing world may look and see
Still the fair message, thought in paler hue,
Of the sweet lives who help men to live true!

No More Cold Hands

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

A woman often does not notice what a cold day it is so long as she is bustling around the house. But when she sits down to her sewing and mending, she soon feels chilly.

It is then she needs a Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater. Its quick, glowing heat warms up a room in next to no time.

That is the beauty of a Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater. It is always ready for use; you can carry it wherever you please; and you light it only when you want it.

The Perfection Oil Heater is smokeless and odorless—a patented automatic device insures that. It is reliable, safe and economical—burns nine hours on one filling. Handsome, too—drums finished either in blue enamel or plain steel, with nickel trimmings.

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties, by day or night.

Days of Dizziness

Come to Hundreds of Charleroi People

There are days of dizziness;
Spells of headache, weariness, backache;
Sometimes rheumatic pains;
Often urinary disorders;
All tell you plainly the kidneys are sick.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

Here is proof of their merits in Charleroi:

M. Miller, 310 Second street, Charleroi says: "While living in Marion, Ind., I used Doan's Kidney Pills and in return for the great benefit I received, I can recommend them highly. My principle trouble was backache, and dizzy spells and difficulty with the kidney secretions. Doan's Kidney Pills helped me at once and I also know of other persons who have used them with good results."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's and take no other.

Humorous Feminine Rivalry.

The New York Tribune says that an amusing incident occurred at the Gilbert benefit at the Metropolitan Opera house that was not on the program and of which the audience was unaware. Miss Destinn and Mrs. Homer were both in Paris last summer and both chose the same dressmaker. What is more, both chose, unknown to the other, the same dress, and behold, when they arrived at the theater yesterday, they were dressed as alike as Tweedledee and Tweedledum. Mrs. Homer was first on the program and, as prima donnas are after all but as other women, there was nothing for Miss Destinn to do but telephone to the Astonia for another gown. The gown arrived within 15 minutes in a taxicab, in ample time to be donned by Miss Destinn.

Quickly Learn to Read.

The good people who live near Rubble have started a school for people who are over twenty-one years of age and who cannot read or write. The class is composed of 18 people between the ages of twenty-four and fifty-seven. They have only been holding class for a few weeks each night, but already many of them can read short sentences. — Lancaster (Ky.) Record.

For German Monument.

Plans of the national German-American alliance for a monument to commemorate the foundling of the first German settlement in this country are to be consummated. The memorial is to be located in Vernon Park, Germantown, Pennsylvania, and congress has voted to add $25,000 to a similar amount raised by the alliance.

SHOWER IS GIVEN FOR BRIDE-TO-BE

Friends of Miss Jennie Hormell Tender Her Suprise--Bachelors Holds Dance

Asurprise linen shower was tendered Miss Jennie Hormell, a bride-to-be, on Thursday night at her home on Prospect avenue. The affair was arranged by a number of her girl friends. She received many beautiful pieces of linen and cut glass. An enjoyable evening was spent and lunch was served.

The Bachelor's Club, an organization of young men of Monessen held a dance at Monessen Friday night that assumed a place among the brilliant social functions of the season. There were many out-of-town people present, among them being a number of couples from Charleroi.

History of a Gown.

The London Saturday Journal tells some tales of extravagance practiced in England among the very wealthy people. One woman bought a gown of unusual and remarkable smartness for £170 and wore it once (so conspicuously unusual a creation could not possibly be worn more than once), and sold it to a fashionable clothes dealer for £100. The dealer resold it to a woman in not quite so prominent a social set, who wore it three or four times, and then sold it to one still less fashionable, and so on until the gown had reached the regions of tawdry finery, each new buyer paying a little less for it, and the clothes dealer making her rakeoff on each transaction.

Canada Cavalry Lacks Mounts.

"Canada is thirty-three thousand remounts short of mobilization, and England is 295,000 short," said John F. Ryan of Montreal, general manager of the Canadian national bureau of breeding. "Not long since I visited the army posts in western Canada, and nearly all of the mounted regiments I saw came to camp very weak, and in no case approaching their establishment. This is due to the scarcity of horses, and while heavy farm horses and draft horses are bred in abundance, the cavalry horse is getting scarce."

CHARLEROI IS TAKEN OVER BY SOUTHSIDE FIVE

Severe Drubbing Given to Local Passers by Smoky City Aggregation

SOMEBODY SLIPPED COG

Southside came back in a way that would have done the Colonel credit Friday night and presented Charleroi with next to its worst basketball defeat this season. There was plenty for the spectators to think about during the struggle, but it was mostly of the Southside brand, so that when events closed the team from the Smoky City had 49 points to Charleroi's 26.

Somebody slipped a cog somewhere about the Charleroi premises. After three days' good practice, the result of which showed in spots, and proud of having conquered the Pittsburgers a week ago, the Cherubs coudn't quite get their clock working right until just at the last part of the game and that didn't get anybody very much.

Southside was so tickled over their first visit to the Governor's town that they just bubbled over. They brought down team work to an art and basket shooting to a perfection.

Taken all in all it was rather a pretty struggle with the referee. one Meisel, from Pittsburg, getting the worst of it. Meisel was accused of not calling things when they happened. Capt. Jack Adams pulled off about the only spectacular performance of the evening when he planted the ball squarely in the basket from the center of the floor. Lineup:

Southside—49		Charleroi—26
Steel	F	Adams
Frankel	F	J. Brown
Penino	C	Dolin
Henschell	G	A. Brown
Curlett	G	Peiffer

Field goals—Steel 6, Frankel 6, Henschell 3, Curlett 7, Adams 3, J. Brown 2, Dolin 2. Foul goals—Curlett 5 of 9. Adams 12 of 24. Referee—Meisel

Lake Trade Closes.

Practically the last of the lake coal shipments have been made from the Pittsburg district to the northwest. In Westmoreland county coal fields there is an increasing activity, as the mines there are more active in the winter season. They supply fuel for rail shipments exclusively. A la Baseball

The Philadelphia North American has recently been writing up gridiron notes in flowing, breezy baseball parlance as follows:

Yale has put Howe on the market. The Blues will give Howe and a big cash bonus for "Shorty" Miller of Penne State.

Harvard offered Princeton $30,000 for Sam White but the Tiger management declared it might as well get out of the business as let White go, as nobody would go to see the team.

Penn is willing to give Nolan, the line-man, $15,000 in cash and a professor of English literature for Captain Very of Penn State. State declined the offer.

Michigan wants Eddie Hart of Princeton badly and is willing to give Coach Yost and the choice of any of of their buildings for him.

There is a rumor that a big New England eleven is tampering with Jim Thorpe, the famous Carlisle star but as Thorpe is under three year contract, Carlisle fans are not worrying

It is predicted that Princeton will have a whole lot of trouble getting Sam White in line for next year.

PITT AND STATE TO ENGAGE IN ANNUAL COMBAT

Forbes Field will be the scene of one of the most sensational football games on Thanksgiving Day that has ever been played in that city. Pennsylvania State college's undefeated eleven, which has been playing havoc with all the crack teams of the East will battle with the University of Pittsburg team, which last Saturday won the western Pennsylvania title by defeating Washington & Jefferson. The kick-off will be at 2:30 o'clock. It is predicted that a crowd of 25,000 will watch the teams battle. Out of town patrons can secure tickets by mail by sending a self-addressed envelope with money order or cash to Graduate Manager Laurence B. Hurst, 1262 Frick Annex, Pittsburg.

The teams will battle for a handsome silver trophy in the form of a regular sized football. This was put up in 1908 by A. G. Spalding & Co. with the understanding that the team winning the best of five games gain permanent possession. State has won two out of three games played which makes this year's contest all the more important. A victory for the Center county team will give it permanent possession of the trophy. A victory for Pitt will tie the count at 2—2. The record of the games between these rival elevens from 1908 on is as follows:

1908 Penn State 12—Pitts 6.
1909 Penn State 5—Pitt 0.
1910 Pitt 11—Penn State 0.

Girl Student Wins Competition.

Miss Louise Stanwood, a special student in Radcliffe college, has won in the play competition of the Harvard Dramatic club. Miss Stanwood's play, "The Progress of Mrs. Alexander," has been accepted by the club and will be presented in December. The competition was open to both Harvard and Radcliffe students. The Emmanuel Society of Radcliffe gave three representations of "Cyrano de Bergerac" last month for the benefit of the scholarship fund. Each year this society raises the money for one tuition and something toward a permanent scholarship fund. There is still lacking $5,000 to make up the permanent fund.

Among The Passers

Speaking of pretty basket shooting that one of Adams' from the center of the floor was a pippin.

Jimmy Brown went into the game with more adornments to his head piece than any basketball player has any license to have. He not only was off balance because of a broken nose sustained in a collision at Uniontown last week, but Friday night appeared with a boil to embellish the scenery at the rear of his fountain of intelligence. Nevertheless James played a good game even if the team did feel a little shaky about it.

Referee Meisel who hails from Pittsburg himself missed his car and nearly mised his calling Friday night. He got in after the two teams were about ready to select a referee from their number. Then, so they say, his decisions were not of the highest quality. Not that he didn't call fouls properly but that he didn't use his eyes to see more.

It seems too queer to realize that the Cokers beat Uniontown but such is the case. The score was 47 to 30.

Tome was out of the Southside lineup Friday night here but he will be seen jumping center against Uniontown tonight. Steel, a new man was on forward instead of Curlett who played a guard. Penino played center in Tome's place.

Referee baiting in basketball is much the same kind of performance that umpire baiting is in baseball. And there is some of it in the Central league.

Uniontown hasn't had occasion to do much kicking against the ruling of the referee in its games, being a habitual winner, but let the referee make one single mistake and Uniontown gets beat, then watch them howl. You can already see the outcropping.

Johnny Freund seems to be one of of the most popular managers in this league. His German name fits him well.

Paul Landis, the High School teacher, who is some potatoes as a basketball player himself knows some of this Southside bunch. He played with Curlett and one of the other stars one year, and says they were then able performers.

"BOMB" SENT TO GOV. J. K. TENER PROBED

Postoffice Inspector Takes Apart Queer Contrivance

READY TO SHOOT OFF

Device Came Through the Mails and Bears Philadelphia Postmark

Ingeniously contrived and evidently a device not to be tampered with too much, a "bomb" sent to Governor J. K. Tener some time ago was opened this morning at the postoffice by Postoffice Inspector H. H. Williams. Whether the instrument was sent to Mr. Tener as a joke or whether it was meant as an explosive to do him injury, is a question yet to be determined. Nevertheless Inspector Williams states an investigation will be made.

When the device came to Mr. Tener from Philadelphia he didn't admire the looks of it, but turned it over to Postmaster McCardle. Postmaster McCardle and his force of employes were curious, but they felt a little nervous about getting the contrivance out of temper, as it might go off and do somebody some damage.

Inspector Williams came a couple of days ago and this morning the strong box was opened and the device taken out. Handling it gingerly, he saturated it with water and with a penknife as his only implement started in to dissect the thing. It was a pasteboard cylinder made in pencil shape, about eight or nine inches long and had on one end a small button picture of Col. Roosevelt. The device was labelled with a printed slip of paper "Memorial to State's Heroes Dedicated," and on a smaller piece of paper in smaller type contained a demand: "Drive the Republican bosses out." Inside was found a substance resembling powder, but giving forth a smell like licorice. In the middle of it was found a match and so arranged in one end was a piece of bent steel that when removed it would light the match. Running the greater part of the length of the instrument was a piece of punk, to serve as a fuse. A small piece of lead, evidentally taken from a toy tin horn and having a small sharp piece of brass attached occupied a place in the end.

From the address and postmark, it was determined that the contrivance had come from Philadelphia. A chemist will probably be asked to determine the nature of the powder-like substance. Inspector Williams refused when it was suggested, to strike a match to even a little of it.

To Discuss Evangelist

Ministers and Laymen to Hold Meeting to Talk Over Project

The matter of holding an evangelistic campaign next spring, to end at about the time of the Sunday School convention to be held here in June, will be taken up by a committee of ministers and laymen from each church at a meeting to be held at the First Presbyterian church Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Each of the ministers and six laymen from each church are expected to be present. The proposition of extending to Rev. A. E. Burows an invitation to conduct the campaign will be discussed.

CAMPAIGN IS GREAT SUCCESS

Evangelistic Service At M. E. Church Brings 130 Conversions

CLASS TO JOIN CHURCH

One of the greatest evangelistic campaigns which has ever been held in this vicinity, which may close on Sunday night has been held during the past three weeks at the Methodist Episcopal church. The campaign was of such a nature that all told to date there have been 130 conversions. Evangelist A. E. Burrows of Ohio, was in charge of the services for ten days and then when he left Rev. F. A. Richards, the pastor assumed his place.

While conducted at the Methodist Episcapol church the meetings were really interdonimational and various churches received the benefit.

There were over 100 conversions during the time Rev. Burows and his song leader, Prof R. A. Jennings were here and this week there were 25 conversions.

Sunday morning there will be an impressive sight at the Methodist Episcopal church when a class of at least 50 will be admitted to church membership. Sunday evening Rev. Richards will conduct an evangelistic service and will then announce whether or not the meetings will be continued.

James T. Heffran, coroner-elect, spent $169 in securing his election. He gave $156 to the Republican county committee. The balance was spent for railroad and street car fare. Mr. Heffran spent $200.88 in securing his nomination.

B. C. Stout, defeated for election for poor director, spent $147.25 in endeavoring to secure his election. He paid Chairman Brownlee $75 and the balance was spent in advertising and traveling expenses. Mr. Stout spent in the primaries $70.40.

R. W. Wolfe, director of the poor-elect, spent $121. Of the amount $100 was given the Republican county committee. He spent $190.85 in the primaries.

RAILS LAID ON TROLLEY LINE OUT TO DONORA

Expected Service Will be Instituted by First of New Year

All the rails of the trolley extension between Monongahela and Donora have been laid and the workmen are busy stretching the trolley wire. The rail connections were made above Baird station Thursday and the finishing of the work will now be pushed with great rapidity. From present indications the trolley should be able to run on a regular schedule by the first of the year. The work car is already hauling ballast and placing it and after the trolley wire is made permanent in its place, there will be but little more to do to complete the line.

CRIMINAL COURT ENDS; SLATE IS AGAIN CLEARED

The November term of criminal court ended Friday. This closes up District Attorney C. L. V. Acheson's term which office he has filled during the past four years. Very few cases were carried over, and District Attorney-elect R G. Miller will have a comparatively clean slate when he assumes office in January.

William Johnson of Bulger pleaded guilty Friday to felonious entry. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $25 and costs and serve 60 days in jail. Frank Campbell, charged with assault upon his 12-year-old son, was found not guilty and the costs were put upon Jerry Sommons, the private prosecutor.

Louis Loupatkih of Braznell, who was tried on a charge of collecting fire insurance on false pretense, was found not guilty. The private prosecutor was the German Fire Insurance company of Wheeling which was stuck for the costs.

He has picked a choir from the singers of the various churches.

INCREASE SHOWN IN BUSINESS

Charleroi Savings and Trust Co. Makes Statement

LATEST TO LOCATE HERE

The Charleroi Savings and Trust company, which is the "infant industry" in the banking line in Charleroi, makes a most excellent showing in its statement recently published in response to the call of the State Banking commissioner. This call was made for a statement of affairs at the close of business on November 6.

With a capital ctock of $125,000, the company has resources of 630,260.68 It has a surplus of $20,000, with undivided profits, less expenses and taxes paid, of $19,371.98. Its deposits are $465,888.65 and it has trust funds invested and uninvested to the amount of $233,964.78.

This statement shows a gain of $80,000 in deposits and a gain of $200,000 in trust accounts since its last statement. The Charleroi Savings and Trust company is one of the solid institutions of the valley, and its good business showing reflects the confidence the public has in its character and standing.

Trust funds are special deposits made to settle estates to support minors, and to execute the office of trustees or guardians in transacting business for others. The company is making a big gain in this department right along.

Operations at Allenport to be Suspended Shortly

OPENING IN FIFTH POOL

Workings in Upper River to be in Shape for Heavy Shipments by Spring

Practically worked out, the Vesta coal mine of the Jones & Laughlin company near Allenport will be closed down entirely within a short time. There are still about 40 men employed about the premises, 20 on the day shift and 20 on the night. These men are engaged principally in drawing ribs and stumps and the output will be used principally to coal steamers of the Vesta line. Ten years ago the Vesta mine employed nearly 1,009 men who did the bulk of their buying in Charleroi.

Marking the beginning of the end the power plant was shut off this week. It will not be long now until the mine is not operating. At the present time four steamers of this line are engaged in towing coal from the fourth pool to the mills at Pittsburg and Aliquippa. These are, the Henry A. Laughlin, the B. F. Jones, the Titan and the Vulcan. Only the Vesta No. 4 mine at California is working steadily now and as it is one of the largest in the country, the Vesta coal trade is being kept up well.

In the Fifth pool the Vest coal operations are not far enough advanced to take out any quantity, but the mine there will be in shape next spring to produce large quantities of coal. Jones and Laughlin constitute with the River Coal company the biggest river shippers in the Monongahela valley.

JONES-IRWIN NUPTIALS SAID AT HOMESTEAD

At the parsonage of the First Presbyterian church of Homestead this morning the marriage of Miss Mina G. Irwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Irwin, of near Monongahela and Walter F. Jones, formerly of Charleroi took place. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate members and friends of the families by Rev Hickman, the pastor of the church. After the ceremony the happy couple left for a short wedding journey to Washington D. C. and other points of interest. Both are well known young people. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones of Charleroi, and is employed near Monongahela as a well driller.

ADVERTISE EARLY.

In this age of time-saving and efficiency, a united movement is on foot to induce people to do their Christmas and holiday shopping early This should appeal directly to the merchant and retailer, as early shopping insures more business, more deliberate buying, more extensive buying and consequently much more business. With the bulk of the Christmas buying done beforehand and the larger and more expensive purchases made and disposed of more time and attention can be paid to the last rush, when every facility of the merchant is needed to dispose of the special Christmas goods which afford small profits and which entails a loss if carried over Therefore early Christmas shopping means more business and more profits for the merchant.

This is perfectly clear and logical; but, to induce people to shop early the merchant must advertise early. How can people become imbued with the Christmas spirit—that which induces them to dip down into their pockets and spend their money—if there is nothing to stimulate this spirit? Most merchants make the mistake of waiting until two weeks before Christmas before making their holiday announcements which only enables them to catch the rush trade instead of getting the trade of the deliberate and more extensive buyers Mail order houses and Pittsburg, Philadelphia and New York dealers are already flooding this community with catalogues and prospectuses of Christmas goods, and are getting the cream of much of the trade of this community which rightfully belongs to the home merchant.

City merchants are preparing to inaugurate an early shopping movement. They are doing this by advertising early and creating Christmas wants three or four weeks in advance of the ordinary period. Of course there will be the customary rush the last few days, but the merchant who has put in his licks early can watch the trade that he cannot serve in the final rush pass him by with complancency. The merchant who advertises early will catch the most desirable of the early shoppers.

HOW MINING DECLINES

The rapidity with which coal deposits are exhausted when mining operations are prosecuted on a large scale, is evidenced by the statement that the Jones & Laughlin people are about to finally abandon their mine at Vesta. This mine is now employing a total force of forty men who are engaged in pulling stumps and pillars, which marks the last of the mining operations of the plant.

Ten years ago the Vesta mine was the largest producing plant along the river. At one time nearly one thousand people were employed there, and as street railway and other transportation facilities were not so extensive then as now Charleroi got the bulk of the trade from the operatives of this mine. The gradual decline of operations of course had its effect on Charleroi The working out of this mine, together with other causes has caused a marked decline in outside business which many people attribute to the fault of the business people of the town in not holding trade which is alleged to have gone elsewhere. This is but natural consequence and one which will have to be considered in every mining community. Coal seams are not inexhaustible, and at the rate at which mining operations are now conducted a decade means big changes Coal mining cannot be a permanent operation in any one locality and business interests must look to manufacturing for permanent industry in connection with the production of coal

A story is told of a prominent Pittsburg mercantile firm that one time called its millinery buyer to account for purchasing two Paris hats which were marked to sell for $150 each. The head of the firm was particularly indignant, and said to the buyer, who was a woman:

"What in the would did you ever buy these hats for? You'll never sell them at that price. The idea of paying $150 for a woman's hat is perfectly ridiculous

"Oh yes, I'll sell them," replied the buyer. "I had two women in particular in mind when I bought them I know I'll sell them."

"You never will," insisted the head of the firm. "I believe all our patrons are too sensible to ever pay that much for a hat."

A few days later the senior happened to be in the millinery department and the buyer informed him that she had disposed of the two Paris creations.

"Who in the world was foolish enough to pay that much for a hat?" he asked

"One was Mrs. ———, and the other was Mrs. ———," replied the buyer, mentioning the wife of the head partner, and the wife of another member of the firm.

The head of the firm grinned rather foolishly, but made no further remarks.

"There's a small boy in Charleroi who's got the making of a shrewd business man," remarked a Charleroi citizen a day or two ago "Some time ago I noticed the announcement of an article to appear in the next number of the Saturday Evening Post which I wanted to read. The day the Post appeared I hailed a small boy who was selling the periodical on the street, and bought a copy. I had not been getting the Post regularly, but the next week the self-same small boy appeared at my office and tendering me a copy of the publication said in a matter of fact way:

"'Here's your Post for this week, Mr ——'

'The tact of the little fellow in adding a new patron to his route struck me as out of the ordinary for a boy of his years and although I had not ordered the Post, I took it without question and have been buying it regularly ever since."

Still the fair message, thought in paler hue
Of the sweet lives who help men to live true!

There are days of dizziness;
Spells of headache, weariness, backache;
Sometimes rheumatic pains;
Often urinary disorders;
All tell you plainly the kidneys are sick.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

Here is proof of their merits in Charleroi:

M. Miller, 310 Second street, Charleroi says: "While living in Marion, Ind., I used Doan's Kidney Pills and in return for the great benefit I received, I can recommend them highly. My principle trouble was backache, and dizzy spells and difficulty with the kidney secretions. Doan's Kidney Pills helped me at once and I also know of other persons who have used them with good results."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's and take no other.

Humorous Feminine Rivalry.

The New York Tribune says that an amusing incident occurred at the Gilbert benefit at the Metropolitan Opera house that was not on the program and of which the audience was unware. Miss Destinn and Mrs. Homer were both in Paris last summer and both chose the same dressmaker. What is more, both chose, unknown to the other, the same dress, and behold, when they arrived at the theater yesterday, they were dressed as alike as Tweedledee and Tweedledum. Mrs. Homer was first on the program and, as prima donnas are after all but as other women, there was nothing for Miss Destinn to do but telephone to the Ansonia for another gown. The gown arrived within 15 minutes in a taxicab, in ample time to be donned by Miss Destinn.

Quickly Learn to Read.

The good people who live near Rubble have started a school for people who are over twenty-one years of age and who cannot read or write. The class is composed of 18 people between the ages of twenty-four and fifty-seven. They have only been holding class for a few weeks each night, but already many of them can read short sentences. — Lancaster (Ky.) Record.

For German Monument.

Plans of the national German-American alliance for a monument to commemorate the foundling of the first German settlement in this country are to be consummated. The memorial is to be located in Vernon Park, Germantown, Pennsylvania, and congress has voted to add $25,000 to a similar amount raised by the alliance.

SHOWER IS GIVEN FOR BRIDE-TO-BE

Asurprise linen shower was tendered Miss Jennie Hormell, a bride-to-be, on Thursday night at her home on Prospect avenue. The affair was arranged by a number of her girl friends. She received many beautiful pieces of linen and cut glass. An enjoyable evening was spent and lunch was served.

The Bachelor's Club, an organization of young men of Monessen held a dance at Monessen Friday night that assumed a place among the brilliant social functions of the season. There were many out-of-town people present, among them being a number of couples from Charleroi.

History of a Gown.

The London Saturday Journal tells some tales of extravagance practiced in England among the very wealthy people. One woman bought a gown of unusual and remarkable smartness for £179 and wore it once (so conspicuously unusual a creation could not possibly be worn more than once), and sold it to a fashionable clothes dealer for £100. The dealer resold it to a woman in not quite so prominent a social set, who wore it three or four times, and then sold it to one still less fashionable, and so on until the gown had reached the regions of tawdry finery, each new buyer paying a little less for it, and the clothes dealer making her rakeoff on each transaction.

Canada Cavalry Lacks Mounts.

"Canada is thirty-three thousand remounts short of mobilization, and England is 298,000 short," said John F. Ryan of Montreal, general manager of the Canadian national bureau of breeding. "Not long since I visited the army posts in western Canada, and nearly all of the mounted regiments I saw came to camp very weak, and in no case approaching their establishment. This is due to the scarcity of horses, and while heavy farm horses and draft horses are bred in abundance, the cavalry horse is getting scarce."

Girl Student Wins Competition.

Miss Louise Stanwood, a special student in Radcliffe college, has won in the play competition of the Harvard Dramatic club. Miss Stanwood's play, "The Progress of Mrs Alexander," has been accepted by the club and will be presented in December. The competition was open to both Harvard and Radcliffe students. The Emmanuel Society of Radcliffe gave three representations of "Cyrano de Bergerac" last month for the benefit of the scholarship fund. Each year this society raises the money for one tuition and something toward a permanent scholarship fund. There is still lacking $5,000 to make up the permanent fund.

CHARLEROI IS TAKEN OVER BY SOUTHSIDE FIVE

Severe Drubbing Given to Local Passers by Smoky City Aggregation

SOMEBODY SLIPPED COG

Southside came back in a way that would have done the Colonel credit Friday night and presented Charleroi with next to its worst basketball defeat this season. There was plenty for the spectators to think about during the struggle, but it was mostly of the Southside brand, so that when events closed the team from the Smoky City had 49 points to Charleroi's 26.

Somebody slipped a cog somewhere about the Charleroi premises. After three days' good practice, the result of which showed in spots, and proud of having conquered the Pittsburgers a week ago, the Cherubs coudn't quite get their clock working right until just at the last part of the game and that didn't get anybody very much.

Southside was so tickled over their first visit to the Governor's town that they just bubbled over. They brought down team work to an art and basket shooting to a perfection.

Taken all in all it was rather a pretty struggle with the referee, one Meisel, from Pittsburg, getting the worst of it. Meisel was accused of not calling things when they happened. Capt. Jack Adams pulled off about the only spectacular performance of the evening when he planted the ball squarely in the basket from the center of the floor. Lineup:

Southside—49		Charleroi—26
Steel	F.	Adams
Frankel	F.	J Brown
Penno	C.	Dolin
Henschell	G.	A. Brown
Curlett	G.	Peiffer

Field goals—Steel 6, Frankel 6, Henschell 3, Curlett 7, Adams 3, J. Brown 2, Dolin 2. Foul goals—Curlett 5 of 9. Adams 12 of 24. Referee—Meisel

Lake Trade Closes.

Practically the last of the lake coal shipments have been made from the Pittsburg district to the northwest. In Westmoreland county coal fields there is an increasing activity, as the mines there are more active in the winter season. They supply fuel for rail shipments exclusively. Some of the mines that have been idle for nearly two years are preparing to resume operations

BOWLERS MEET ON CRESCENT ALLEYS

On the Crescent alleys Tuesday night the Comets took all three games from the Venuses' in the most exciting games of the league. The Venuses were handicapped badly by the absence of Capt. Irose. Lorensen had high score also high average. Tuesday night the Crescents bowl the Versuses. Score:

FOOTBALL DOPE

A la Baseball

The Philadelphia North American has recently been writing up gridiron notes in flowing, breezy baseball parlance as follows:

Yale has put Howe on the market. The Blues will give Howe and a big cash bonus for "Shorty" Miller of Penne State.

Harvard offered Princeton $30,000 for Sam White but the Tiger management declared it might as well get out of the business as let White go, as nobody would go to see the team.

Penn is willing to give Nolan, the line-man, $15,000 in cash and a professor of English literature for Captain Very of Penn State. State declined the offer

Michigan wants Eddie Hart of Princeton badly and is willing to give Coach Yost and the choice of any of of their buildings for him.

There is a rumor that a big New England eleven is tampering with Jim Thorpe, the famous Carlisle star but as Thorpe is under three year contract, Carlisle fans are not worrying

It is predicted that Princeton will have a whole lot of trouble getting Sam White in line for next year.

Harvard has signed a contract to train in Cambridge, Mass, in 1912

Among The Passers

Speaking of pretty basket shooting that one of Adams' from the center of the floor was a pippin.

Jimmy Brown went into the game with more adornments to his head piece than any basketball player has any license to have. He not only was off balance because of a broken nose sustained in a collision at Uniontown last week, but Friday night appeared with a boil to embellish the scenery at the rear of his fountain of intelligence. Nevertheless James played a good game even if the team did feel a little shaky about it.

Referee Meisel who hails from Pittsburg himself missed his car and nearly mised his calling Friday night. He got in after the two teams were about ready to select a referee from their number. Then, so they say, his decisions were not of the highest quality. Not that he didn't call fouls properly but that he didn't use his eyes to see more.

It seems too queer to realize that the Cokers beat Uniontown but such is the case. The score was 47 to 30.

Tome was out of the Southside lineup Friday night here but he will be seen jumping center against Uniontown tonight. Steel, a new man was on forward instead of Curlett who played a guard. Penno played center in Tome's place.

Referee baiting in basketball is much the same kind of performance that umpire baiting is in baseball. And there is some of it in the Central league.

Uniontown hasn't had occasion to do much kicking against the ruling of the referee in its games, being a habitual winner, but let the referee make one single mistake and Uniontown gets beat, then watch them howl. You can already see the outcropping.

Johnny Freund seems to be one of of the most popular managers in this league. His German name fits him well.

Paul Landis, the High School teacher, who is some potatoes as a basketball player himself knows some of this Southside bunch. He played with Curlett and one of the other stars one year, and says they were then able performers.

PITT AND STATE TO ENGAGE IN ANNUAL COMBAT

Forbes Field will be the scene of one of the most sensational football games on Thanksgiving Day that has ever been played in that city. Pennsylvania State college's undefeated eleven, which has been playing havoc with all the crack teams of the East will battle with the University of Pittsburg team, which last Saturday won the western Pennsylvania title by defeating Washington & Jefferson. The kick-off will be at 2:30 o'clock. It is predicted that a crowd of 25,000 will watch the teams battle Out of town patrons can secure tickets by mail by sending a self-addressed envelope with money order or cash to Graduate Manager Laurence B. Hurst, 1262 Frick Annex, Pittsburg.

The teams will battle for a handsome silver trophy in the form of a regular sized football This was put up in 1908 by A. G. Spalding & Co. with the understanding that the team winning the best of five games gain permanent possession. State has won two out of three games played which makes this year's contest all the more important. A victory for the Center county team will give it permanent possession of the trophy. A victory for Pitt will tie the count at 2—2. The record of the games between these rival elevens from 1908 on is as follows:

1908 Penn State 12—Pitts 6
1909 Penn State 5—Pitt 0.
1910 Pitt 11—Penn State 0.
